ORDER

Issued: February 14, 2017

Released: February 14, 2017

On January 30, 2017, Maritime Communications/Land Mobile (Maritime) independently filed a Status Report, attaching the Commission's Order on Reconsideration and Memorandum Opinion and Order, FCC 16-172, that had been released December 15, 2016.¹

¹ Maritime and Choctaw received the Order on or about December 15, 2016. The Presiding Judge was not then notified.

The Commission's Order granted requests for Second Thursday relief of Maritime and Choctaw Holdings (Choctaw), in connection with their reorganization under Chapter 11.²

Maritime's Status Report asks that a stay be lifted³ and that the parties be permitted to continue the litigation to determine the remaining issue:

(g) Whether Maritime constructed or operated any of its stations at variance with section 1.955(a) and 80.49(a) of the Commission's rules.

The Status Report represents that Maritime, Choctaw and the Enforcement Bureau agree that operations of certain other site-based stations have not been permanently discontinued. It also represents that the Enforcement Bureau has no objection to the matters represented in the Status Report, or in lifting the stay.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the stay BE LIFTED forthwith.

It is further ORDERED that the parties shall file a joint status report, advising on the status of discovery and any open matters or issues within ten (10) days.

² Choctaw was a creature of the Bankruptcy, and Choctaw is the intended assignee of Maritime licenses.

³ The case was stayed on November 23, 2015, the date the first Request for Second Thursday relief was submitted for consideration by the Commission. The stay was requested by Maritime and Choctaw without objection of the Enforcement Bureau.
